We have three things to be thankful for this second week of May. First, we thank the parishioners (the Angelinis, the Monteiros and Ari Guiny, the LeBlancs, Brother Alan Aubin, SC, and Brother Marcel Leclerc, SC, Leo Shiel, Marion Devine, Pat Camara, Lorraine Doherty, Donna Zannelli, Yana DeBlois, Joseph Oliver, James Simonini and Eva Perry) who cooked and served and made our Spring Breakfast such a successful event. Not only was there good food to enjoy, but there was also the chance to sit and talk with each other. So thank you all in the name of the parish.

We want to congratulate our three young members, Yana DeBlois, Joseph Oliver and James Simonini, who were confirmed by Bishop Tobin on Wednesday, April 30, at Our Lady Queen of Martyrs Church, and we want to thank Judith Angell, their kind but strict teacher, Donna Zannelli, the director of our CCD programs, and their parents and sponsors. It was a joyous occasion.

Third, we want to thank a member of the parish who has spent a great deal of money to provide all the members of the parish with a very readable booklet entitled The Real Story. If you have not picked up a copy at the entrances to the church, please do so. It will help your understanding of the Big Picture of the Bible, as its title says.

We look forward now to the celebration of First Communion on May 18. And let us enjoy the beauty of this time of year!

SUMMER FUN IS IN MOTION! Mother of Hope Day Camp is accepting registration for your child for a week of Discovery, Creativity and Fun! Mother of Hope (Mater Spei) Camp (MOH) is a co-educational day camp for children ages 5-12 sponsored by the Diocese of Providence. For more than 65 years, thousands of children have experienced camp as a vibrant faith community through fun-filled weeks in a safe and supportive setting. A week at camp provides young people with the opportunity to grow physically, socially, and spiritually in a Christian community under the guidance of a trained and caring staff. Children of all backgrounds and religions are welcome. Open House—Sunday, May 18 from 1-4PM. Please visit website to register or for more information: www.motherofhopecamp.com See post cards at church entrances.

RENEWAL - A documentary film of stories from America's Religious-Environmental Movement at St. John Vianney Parish, 3609 Diamond Hill Rd., Cumberland, on Thursday, May 15 - 6:30 - 8:30PM. Free will offering for event. People of faith are standing up for the environment says veteran film producers Marty Ostrow and Terry Kay Rockefeller who created the 90 minute film. They were inspired by the religious groups that are striving to protect life on our planet and reverse the damage that humans have done to the environment. Upcoming Mini-Retreats Sacred Hearts Retreat Center, Wareham, MA - May 14: Don't Postpone Joy.

"The miracle is not to fly in the air, or to walk on water, but to live joyfully." It does seem nothing short of a miracle to find happiness in the midst of life's hardships, but with the dawn of each day we have the opportunity to choose how we want to live the next 24 hours. Because happiness is an inside job, we can opt for contentment over misery. Life is short; it's best we don't postpone joy.

LaSalette Retreat Center, Attleboro, MA on May 20: Honoring Our Mothers, Loving Ourselves

Regardless of how healthy or wounded a mother is, the child receives many gifts from her, though perhaps they come in disguise. May is an appropriate month to reflect on the role our own mother has played in our lives and to recognize these gifts. To honor our mother is to actually love ourselves because our mother has contributed significantly to the person we have become today.

Each mini-retreat begins 10:00AM and ends 12:30PM and costs $20. Pre-registration required. Contact Peggy at 508-548-9149 or timeoutretreats@comcast.net. For more information and retreat descriptions, visit www.timeoutretreats.com.

PRAYING TOWARDS SUNDAY'S GOSPEL

John 10:1-10

"He walks ahead of them and the sheep follow him, because they recognize his voice."

The Shepherd knows his sheep and they know him too.
He calls them each by name.

Jesus,
We long to hear you call our name,
to always know your voice, to follow you.

Help us find you, the gate through which we enter the sheepfold and offer one another your abundant life.

Sacrament of Baptism
