Although today, Tuesday, the 13th of May, is colder than yesterday, which was in fact if not in date the first day of summer, it is still clear that we are beyond winter. The trees are in bloom. Nature has come back to life, and we are glad. We know that we have gone through a long, cold winter, yet we are also aware of the fact that we have not suffered the terrible disasters which others have suffered in other parts of our country. We support them with our prayers, and we give thanks to God for our own safety this past winter.

*Thank
you*

We have lost two parishioners in the past week: Olga Peters and Tom Flood. May they now share in the risen Lord's life with the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit!

Here in our lives on earth we are called to anticipate the risen life by living the great commandment of love of God and our neighbor, and the beginnings of this new life are given to us in baptism and then strengthened by our receiving the Lord in the Eucharist. We are happy to share the first reception of the Lord in Holy Communion this Sunday with Albert Boisvert, Eva Perry and Zachary Piette. May the Lord be with them this day and all the days of their lives!

We also want to congratulate Olive Godin who celebrated her 101st Birthday on May 16. May God Bless her!

To honor our mother is to actually love ourselves because our mother has contributed significantly to the person we have become today.

Each mini-retreat begins 10:00AM and ends 12:30PM and costs $20. Pre-registration required. Contact Peggy at 508-548-9149 or timeoutretreats@comcast.net. For more information and retreat descriptions, visit www.timeoutretreats.com.

PRAYING TOWARDS SUNDAY'S GOSPEL

John 14: 1-12

"If you know me, then you will also know my Father."

Why did you spend your life on us? To fuse us all as one in you, as we seek the Father?

O Christ, show us the way: your truth and your life!

With joy, we ask you, wrap us up within yourself! Transport us to the Father.

Wherever you abide, that is the place we always want to be—circling in eternal self-giving love, always with you, with our and your Father and your kind gift, the Holy Spirit.
