Two weeks ago we celebrated Lauren Rochefort's receiving the Civic Award from the Secretary of State of Rhode Island. This past week we celebrated Arthur Keegan's receiving the "Good Boy Scout" award and Leo Shiel's being named "Elk of the Year." Our parish is therefore surrounded by the young and the old who are modeling good lives for us. It is interesting that these awards all come from the state or civic organizations, but we see in those receiving them believers whose civic involvement is an expression of their faith and therefore of their membership in our parish. Where else can our faith express itself except in our ordinary lives, in what we do each day, in how we act as parents, as teachers, as people in business, and as those who join private and civic bodies? We congratulate these members of our community for modeling lives of faith in civil society.

"All of humanity's problems stem from man's inability to sit quietly in a room alone."

~Blaise Pascal, Pensées

Our small parish usually makes its goal in the diocesan Catholic Charity Appeal. This year we lack the last thirteen percent. But maybe we will make it yet. Thank you for your generosity. To have raised $23,077.00 from eighty-three donors is no small achievement.

Father Finnegan, S.J.

Announcements

This weekend's 2nd Collection is for Catholic Communications. This Collection helps us share the good news. It has a direct effect on the life of the Diocese of Providence, our parish, and your family. The Office of Communications shares the good news in our diocese in a number of ways, such as locally produced television programs on cable, broadcast and print efforts, sharing news through social media, the diocesan web site, www.dioceseofprovidence.org, free monthly electronic newsletter, the diocesan newspaper, Rhode Island Catholic, and much more. Your generous donation will help us continue to share the good news. Thank you! The Church needs to be present in the world of communications in order to dialogue with people today and help them encounter Christ." Pope Francis.

The CATHOLIC CHARITY CAMPAIGN continues. Please help our parish meet its $26,500. goal! We have now reached $23,077 - 87.08 % our goal. If you have not yet contributed or made a pledge, it's not too late. Envelopes are at the church entrances.

SUMMER FUN IS IN MOTION! Mother of Hope Day Camp is accepting registration for your child for a week of Discovery, Creativity and Fun! Mother of Hope (Mater Spei) Camp (MOH) is a co-educational day camp for children ages 5-12 sponsored by the Diocese of Providence. For more than 65 years, thousands of children have experienced camp as a vibrant faith community through fun-filled weeks in a safe and supportive setting. A week at camp provides young people with the opportunity to grow physically, socially, and spiritually in a Christian community under the guidance of a trained and caring staff. Children of all backgrounds and religions are welcome. Please visit website to register or for more information:

A PENTECOST PRAYER

" And suddenly there came a noise like a strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house where they were. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit."

Spirit, Wild One, sweeping in, unseen, unannounced, unexpected, uncompromising, pressing through the door startling those hovering in fear shaking them out of corners awakening hidden gifts.

Spirit, Wild One, relentless loving presence bringing strength to the weak, courage to the doubtful, joy to the disheartened, faith to the disbelieving.

Spirit, Wild One, come whirling into my soul space, gather what remains in disarray, lift up what is neglected, send forth what wants to hold back, impassion what hesitates, heal what remains wounded.

Spirit, Wild One, breathe large gusts in me, sweep through my being, drench me with hope, soften my resistance, wrap your love around me until I welcome you fully.
