The fourth of July, the Day of Independence for our nation, has been duly celebrated, as the Fathers of our country hoped it would be. But the need for such heavy security this year was not a welcome sign but rather a stern reminder of the dangerous times in which we live. While people gathered on the Mall in Washington, D.C., and at the Esplanade in Boston to listen to the Boston Pops, police and security forces were very much at hand. May the time come when that will be not be necessary? Many in our country see the recent decision of the Supreme Court recognizing same sex civil unions as marriages as an example of what Independence Day celebrates: liberty and justice for all. It is therefore hard for us Catholics to be in disagreement with those who are celebrating. But we must stand our ground.

We had our own little celebration here in the parish, billed for those who didn't have a better offer. The hope was that we could eat outside next to our new rain garden which is now in bloom. But the weather did not permit that. So we ate inside. The food was excellent, thanks to the many chefs. Richard and Paulette Angelini were the main chefs, but our good neighbors, the Brothers of the Sacred Heart, were also on hand to help. And Gary McLaughlin donated a huge chicken to supplement our original menu. Thanks too to Marion Devine, Bob and Pat Camara, and many others, for their multi-tasking. May God bless you for your generosity!

The pope is now visiting three countries in South America: Bolivia, Ecuador, and Paraguay. They are poor countries with heavy Catholic and indigenous populations. May it go well for Pope Francis there! May his visit increase the religious fervor of these lands and inspire their governments in the pursuit of liberty and justice for all.

Fr. Finnegan, S. J.

"God speaks in every language and to every heart through the visible world and through Sacred Scripture. But all of the universe cannot contain the Divine Whirlwind of His Trinitarian Love; Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. For humanity, the sacraments are our access point, our invitation into this Mystery of Forever Love, of the Exhilarating Mystery of the Divine Other." - Trevor Hall
