Padre's Ponderings

A few snapshots from this week:

- I have been visiting with our parishioners who are in nursing homes. While they may not be able to get to church anymore, they are still very much a part of our parish family! One woman, beaming from ear to ear, wept as I gave her Holy Communion. Afterward, through tears, she explained how much she desired to receive Jesus in the Eucharist and how grateful she was that he had answered her prayer. What faith that woman has! She knows that the most important desire of our hearts should be communion with Jesus, present to us in the Blessed Sacrament. I hope to address the needs of our nursing home residents and homebound parishioners in the near future, perhaps by engaging some volunteers in making routine visits on behalf of the parish. If any of you have any thoughts about that, please don't hesitate to reach out.
- I've been able to meet with the finance councils and trustees from both parishes. I am impressed by the sheer amount of experience, talent, wisdom and skill possessed by the members of those councils and I am eager to work with them and with our financial administrator, Christine Daneault, in the coming weeks and months.
- I was able to meet last week with my brother Knights of Columbus, including leadership from the Woonsocket Council. I am so pleased to be in a community where the Knights are so actively present and engaged. I look forward to working with them and I know that we owe them a great debt of gratitude for all the good they do, both seen and unseen.
- We've had a few technical issues with both air conditioning and telecommunications at All Saints. We are in the process of calibrating the timer for the air conditioning in the church and we are addressing the lack of telephone accessibility. Apologies for any discomfort or confusion either of those issues may have caused. We also recently contracted a vendor to repair the front steps of All Saints Church and are hopeful that the work will be completed before winter. We'll be able to remove the unsightly chain and post barriers to make our church even safer and more attractive to members and newcomers alike.

Please check out our Summer Series offerings, beginning TOMORROW! All are welcome! I hope these events will provide more opportunities for the people of All Saints and Saint Charles to join together in prayer, learning and fellowship!

-Fr. Joe

PS – Week three down! Everyone, especially our parish leadership, has made the transition to Saint Charles and All Saints an easy one. I am delighted to be with you!

All Saints is celebrating CHRISTMAS IN JULY!

You will notice that we put up a Christmas tree with tags on it with specific items on it that we need for this years Christmas Bazaar. We would appreciate if you could take a tag, purchase the item and return it (with the tag).

Thank you for helping to make our Annual Christmas Bazaar a success!

ALL SAINTS AND SAINT CHARLES
SUMMER 2019 SERIES:
FAITH, LEARNING AND FELLOWSHIP

Summer is a time to slow down, relax and spend time together with friends and family. We know that summer is a quiet time for most parishes, but there's no better way to slow down, relax and enjoy time with good people than to do so as a parish family, in prayer, learning and fellowship! Please join us for any or all of our summer series offerings. Members of both Saint Charles and All Saints are welcome to attend all or any of these gatherings. Be careful to note times and locations and please help us spread the word!

Magnify Mondays

"My heart magnifies the Lord!" This exclamation of the Virgin Mary is an invitation to each believer to magnify the Lord Jesus, to adore him and worship in our midst. Each Monday, beginning on July 22, Eucharistic Adoration will be offered in All Saints Church from 8:30am until 12nn. The Blessed Sacrament will be exposed following the 8am Mass, and Morning Prayer will be prayed. (No prior experience necessary, all materials will be provided.) At noon, we will conclude with Solemn Benediction. If you are willing to commit to a half-hour time slot (or more!), or if you are willing to coordinate the list of adorers, please call the rectory at 762-1100. Please note: If a funeral takes places on a Monday morning, Adoration will be canceled.

Topics on Tuesdays

Join us on Tuesday mornings in Saint Charles lower church, beginning on July 23, after the 9am Mass, for a talk and discussion on some topic related to our Catholic faith or our local community. Fr.

Joe will accept recommendations on topics to be discussed in a casual and interactive setting. All are welcome to suggest topics, to join in any discussion, or just to listen.

Word on Wednesdays

Beginning on Wednesday, July 24, at 1pm, we will meet in the rectory dining room at All Saints for Word on Wednesdays, an informal bible study with Fr. Joe. No experience is necessary. Just bring a bible (if you own one, otherwise one can be provided you), and a pad and a pen. While there will be some teaching on the passage chosen for study, there will also be an opportunity for faith sharing and prayer. We will be looking at the Gospel of John to begin, but will be open to suggestions moving forward. All are welcome!
