THIS WEEKEND'S SECOND COLLECTION - is for SENIOR PRIEST RETIREMENT FUND ANNUAL COLLECTION, Senior Priests are self-supporting. They live independently in retirement. They receive minimal Social Security benefit. In 1966, the Diocese established this fund in an effort to help retired priests meet basic needs. There are currently 110 senior priests in the diocese. Often retiring between ages 70-75, many continue to serve after more than forty years of active service. Still others require assisted living or nursing home care. This annual collection is a major support for our retired priests. Please consider a generous gift to this Second Collection this weekend
