FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

By the time you read these words, the Autumnfest and the Shelter Walk will be history, though recent history. The one remaining event left now for the last weekend of the month is "A Day of Prayer for Our City" which will take place on Saturday, the 26th, at 11 A.M., at River Island Park. This is the work of some of the evangelical pastors of the city, and Father Reardon of All Saints and I are also going to take part. Perhaps you can come. After the formal prayer session, the members of the different parishes will clean up different areas of the city. My own suggestion for clean-up was the railroad tracks along West School St, the backyard to Harris School. Would anyone want to do that? Let me know.

October has been the month when you, the parishioners, receive a message from me concerning the state of the parish. I hope to continue this custom and in the next week or two provide you with this statement. We should also have a Parish Council Meeting in November to discuss the report and other matters in the parish. But let us plan on that after the big event, our bazaar, on the 9th of November, has taken place.

Those of us who attended the Autumnfest parade on Monday, the 14th, were delighted to see two of our young parishioners in the Woonsocket bands. Congratulations to Lauren Rochefort and James Simonini for contributing to the celebration. We are proud of you.

Fr. Bruce, S.J., is back among us, and we are happy to have him among us again. Welcome back, Fr. Bruce.

Fr. Finnegan, S.J.

PRAYING TOWARDS SUNDAY'S GOSPEL

Luke 18:1-8

"Because this widow keeps bothering me I shall deliver a just decision for her."

Persistence made the crotchety judge give in to the difficult old widow.

Lord, no question about it, you made the fact crystal clear to us:
to petition is a good thing, to pester even better.

Constantly we come to you, like the widow, pounding on your door day and night.

Put this widow's kind of faith in our hearts, O God,
as we wait for your speedy reply.
