"Always turn your eyes from the study of your own sin to the contemplation of God's mercy. Devote much more thought to the grandeur of his love for you than to your unworthiness toward him, to his strength than to your weakness. When you have done this, surrender yourself into God's arms in the hope that he will make you what he requires you to be and that he will bless all that you do. ~Saint Vincent de Paul

A Blessed and Joyous Christmas to all Saint Charles Parishioners!
