KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS MUSEUM - For the 13th consecutive year, the Knights of Columbus Museum, located at 1 State Street, New Haven, CT, is displaying artistic representations of the birth of Jesus at the center of its Christmas exhibition. The show, Peace on Earth: Crèches of the World, will be on view to February 19, 2018. It features more than 70 items, representing 65 countries, many from the museum's own collection, including its recent acquisitions of Polish szopki, stone sculptures from Zimbabwe and Hummel figurines. The museum's array of crèches showcases the diversity of cultures that created them and a faith history seeking to unite people across the world in concord despite global differences. The museum is also featuring its annual Christmas Tree Festival. This popular display of two dozen Christmas Trees showcases the imagination and talent of Connecticut elementary schoolchildren who create handmade ornaments in their classrooms then travel to the museum to tour the Christmas exhibit and decorate a tree.
